Excerpt: . . . to the extent of running its trains over it, which interest was subject to the liability, to pay to the state the 3 per centum on gross earnings stipulated for in Laws 1857, Ex. Sess. c. 1, subc. 1, 18. Sp. Laws 1870, c. 65, 1, does not have the effect to exempt such interest from taxation, so as to relieve defendant from liability to pay such 3 per centum on the gross earnings received by it in operating that line. This action was brought in the district court for Ramsey county, to recover three per cent. of defendants gross earnings, during the year 1881, derived from its operation of the line of railroad between St. Paul and St. Cloud, owned by the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba Railway Co., and over which the defendant ran its trains by virtue of the contract...
